

Verra Mobility appoints Stacey Moser to lead its Commercial Services business

July 2, 2025

Brings 25 years of commercial, product management and engineering leadership at Fortune 100 companies and other innovative technology firms

MESA, Ariz., July 2, 2025 /PRNewswire/ -- Verra Mobility Corporation (NASDAQ: VRRM), a leading provider of smart mobility technology solutions, announced today that Stacey Moser has been appointed as Executive Vice President and General Manager of the company's Commercial Services business unit effective July 21, 2025. She will report directly to David Roberts, CEO of Verra Mobility.

Ms. Moser is a senior executive with more than 25 years of experience leading global commercial, product management, and engineering functions. She most recently served as Chief Commercial Officer (CCO) at Universal Robots, a leading provider of collaborative robotics. Her experience spans Fortune 100 companies such as GE Digital and Texas Instruments as well as other industry leaders including Teradyne, Fortive and Motorola.

"I'm excited to welcome Stacey to the Verra Mobility executive leadership team," said David Roberts, President and CEO, Verra Mobility. "She brings significant experience leading large organizations and driving continuous improvement and operational excellence. Her expertise will be extremely beneficial to our fleet customers in the U.S. and Europe."

Ms. Moser will succeed Steve Lalla who has led the Commercial Services business since February 2021.

"We are thankful to Steve for his years of service running the business and strengthening our position as a leader in tolling and violations management for fleets," said Mr. Roberts.

Ms. Moser built her career across the technology, mobility and infrastructure markets, with deep expertise in market development, go-to-market strategy, product development and LEAN operational excellence.

As CCO at Universal Robots, Ms. Moser led global commercial strategy, sales and market expansion with a focus on scaling revenue and transforming go-to-market strategy. Prior to that, she served as the CCO of GE Digital's power grid automation software business.

Verra Mobility's Commercial Services business solves complex payments and compliance challenges for rental car companies, fleet management companies and fleet operators. Its offerings include tolling and violations management solutions as well as title and registration services. More information about the business can be found at www.verramobility.com/commercial.
